

Amy Biehl High School

Audio-visual technology is revolutionizing communication and engagement, improving everything from theatre and the arts to marketing, and public events.

Explore IT courses relevant to the arts, AV and design available to you and start expanding your skills to enhance your future opportunities!

